CONVERSION AND CHANGE-OF-NAME AGREEMENT

KBR Wyle Services, LLC, a limited liability company duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware (the "Contractor"), and the United States of America ("Government"), enter into this Conversion Agreement (this "Agreement"), effective as of December 31, 2019.

THE PARTIES AGREE TO THE FOLLOWING FACTS:

1. The Government, represented by the Defense Contract Management Agency, has entered into certain contracts with Wyle Laboratories, Inc. ("Wyle Laboratories"), as shown in the attached list marked "Exhibit A" and incorporated in this Agreement by reference. The term "the Contracts," as used in this Agreement, means the above contracts and orders and all other contracts and orders, including all modifications, made between the Government and Wyle Laboratories before the effective date of this Agreement (whether or not performance and payment have been completed and releases executed if the Government or Wyle Laboratories has any remaining rights, duties, or obligations under these contracts and orders).

2. As of December 31, 2019, Wyle Laboratories, Inc. was converted to a limited liability company and changed its name to KBR Wyle Services, LLC by virtue of a Certificate of Conversion and Certificate of Formation filed with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware.

3. The Contractor has retained all the assets of Wyle Laboratories by virtue of the above conversion.

4. The Contractor has retained all obligations and liabilities of Wyle Laboratories under the Contracts by virtue of the above conversion.

5. The Contractor is in a position to fully perform all obligations that may exist under the Contracts.

6. Evidence of the above conversion has been filed with the Government.

IN CONSIDERATION OF THESE FACTS, THE PARTIES AGREE THAT BY THIS AGREEMENT:

1. The Contractor confirms that the conversion from Wyle Laboratories, Inc. was properly effected under Delaware law on December 31, 2019 at 12:01 a.m. Eastern time.

2. The Contractor agrees to be bound by and to perform each of the Contracts in accordance with the conditions contained in the Contracts. The Contractor also assumes all obligations and liabilities of, and all claims against, Wyle Laboratories under the Contracts as if the Contractor was the original party to the Contracts.

3. The Contractor ratifies all previous actions taken by Wyle Laboratories with respect to the Contracts, with the same force and effect as if the action had been taken by the Contractor.

4. The Government recognizes that through the conversion, the Contractor became entitled to all rights, titles, and interests of Wyle Laboratories in and to the Contracts, as if the Contractor were the original party to the Contracts. Following the effective date of this Agreement, the term "Contractor," as used in the Contracts, shall refer to the Contractor.

5. Except as expressly provided in this Agreement, nothing in it shall be construed as a waiver of any rights of the Government against Wyle Laboratories should the conversion prove invalid.

6. All payments and reimbursements previously made by the Government to Wyle Laboratories, and all other previous actions taken by the Government under the Contracts, shall be considered to have discharged those parts of the Government's obligations under the Contracts. All payments and reimbursements made by the Government after the effective date of this Agreement in the name of or to Wyle Laboratories shall have the same force and effect as if made to the Contractor, and shall constitute a complete discharge of the Government's obligations under the Contracts, to the extent of the amounts paid or reimbursed.

7. Wyle Laboratories and the Contractor agree that the Government is not obligated to pay or reimburse either of them for, or otherwise give effect to, any costs, taxes, or other expenses, or any related increases, directly or indirectly arising out of or resulting from the conversion or this Agreement, other than those that the Government in the absence of this conversion or Agreement would have been obligated to pay or reimburse under the terms of the Contracts.

8. The Contracts shall remain in full force and effect, except as modified by this Agreement.

9. Each party has executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.

Re: Request for Approval of Conversion and Change-of-Name Agreement

Dear Ms. Killgore:

I am internal legal counsel for Wyle Laboratories, Inc., a Delaware corporation, which converted into a limited liability company and is now known as KBR Wyle Services, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (the "Company"), and am delivering this opinion in connection with the Company's formal name change and conversion to a limited liability company (the "Conversion"). This letter is being furnished to you solely to satisfy the requirement of Section 42.1205(a)(2) of the Federal Acquisition Regulation.

For purposes of this letter, I have examined (i) an executed copy of the Certificate of Formation filed with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware, (ii) an executed copy of the Certificate of Conversion filed with the Secretary of State for the State of Delaware, and (iii) such other records, documents and matters (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") as I have deemed necessary or appropriate to render the opinions set forth in this letter, subject to the limitations, assumptions, and qualifications noted below.

In reaching the opinions set forth below, I have assumed, and to my knowledge there are no facts inconsistent with, the following:

(a) the genuineness of all signatures on instruments, documents and agreements, the authenticity of all instruments, documents and agreements submitted to me as originals, and the accuracy and completeness of all public records reviewed by me;

(b) the conformity to original documents (and the authenticity of such original documents) of all instruments, documents and agreements submitted to me as copies, certified or otherwise, and the truthfulness, correctness and accuracy of all statements of fact contained therein;

(c) that each party that has executed the Certificate of Formation and Certificate of Conversion as well as any other instrument, document or agreement executed or to be executed in connection with the Conversion or the transactions contemplated thereby (collectively, the "Transaction Documents") has all requisite power and authority and has taken all necessary limited liability company, corporate, or other action to authorize the transactions contemplated thereby and to execute and deliver the Transaction Documents;

(d) that each party that has executed any of the Transaction Documents has duly and validly executed and delivered each of the Transaction Documents, and that the Transaction Documents are the valid, legal and binding obligations of each such party and enforceable against each such party in accordance with their respective terms;

(e) that each natural person executing any of the Transaction Documents is legally competent to do so;

(f) that each party that has executed any of the Transaction Documents has all the requisite governmental certificates of authority, authorizations, licenses, permits, consents and qualifications to execute and deliver the Transaction Documents and to perform the obligations contemplated thereby;

(g) that there are no oral or written modifications of, amendments to or waivers of, any of the Transaction Documents, or any of the provisions thereof, by actions or conduct of the parties or otherwise; and

(h) that there are no records of any proceedings or actions of the directors, managers or members of the Company related to the Transaction Documents that have not been provided to me.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, I am of the opinion that the Conversion from Wyle Laboratories, Inc. to KBR Wyle Services, LLC was properly effected under the laws of the State of Delaware, effective as of December 31, 2019.

Based upon the Change-of-Name, novations and assignments of the contracts are not required. Under Delaware law, a statutory conversion allows a business to change its legal form without changing the assets or liabilities of the business. Because the limited liability company is the same entity after conversion, no contracts are transferred to a third party in a manner that would require a novation. In a conversion, there is no "Transferor" and "Transferee" as contemplated by FAR 42.1204, which makes clear that the Anti-Assignment Act restriction requiring novation only applies to transfer involving a "third party." See FAR 41.1204(a).

Furthermore, no transfer of rights, duties, assets or liabilities are deemed to be transferred as a result of the conversion. Accordingly, a conversion of a corporation to a limited liability company under Delaware law falls under the "operation of law" exception to the Anti-Assignment Act because the conversion has no impact on whether the government continues to receive the benefit of the same management and financial resources of the party with which it originally contracted. The assets of the corporation - including employees, management, financial resources - remain in place vested in the LLC and are not impacted by the conversion event. The conversion to a LLC is therefore analogous to classes of transactions that fall within the "operation of law exception."

The foregoing opinion is also subject to the following qualifications:

The opinions expressed herein concern only the laws of the State of Delaware relating to the enforcement of contracts generally, in each case as applicable to business entities generally and not as a consequence of their particular business or activities (and without regard to the principles of conflicts of laws thereof), all as currently in effect. No opinion, express or implied, regarding the laws of any other state, country or jurisdiction is given. I assume no obligation to supplement the opinions expressed herein if any applicable laws change or if I become aware of any additional facts or circumstances after the date hereof. I express no opinion on any matter other than as expressly set forth herein. Without my express written consent, this opinion may not be relied upon by or furnished or quoted to any other person or entity.

Very truly yours,
